OSCAR BRONEER TRAVELING FELLOWSHIP, 2009-2010

The Oscar Broneer Traveling Fellowship is awarded by the American Academy in Rome and the American School of Classical Studies at Athens to encourage the study of the Greco-Roman world as a whole.

Purpose: The Fellowship will be awarded annually and will be held in Athens and Rome in alternate years. It is expected that the Fellow will use either the American Academy in Rome or the American School of Classical Studies at Athens as a base from which to pursue work through trips to sites and repositories of materials of interest to the Fellow's studies.

Those eligible: Individuals who have spent a year as a fellow of the American Academy in Rome are eligible for a Fellowship based at the American School of Classical Studies at Athens and planning to travel in or near Greece. For the fellowship year of 2009-2010 applicants from the AAR will be accepted. Candidates must have an approved dissertation proposal or, if they already hold the Ph.D., they should be at the beginning of their teaching career and without tenure. Projects may focus on any period of study in the humanities, although preference will be given to topics dealing with Classical Antiquity.

Terms: The Fellowship is awarded to one individual per year. It may be held at any time during the calendar year for a minimum of three and a maximum of six months during the 2009-2010 academic year. The award is valued at a maximum of $30,000, and is meant to cover expenses including housing at the host institution, travel, living expenses, and food. Support from the host institution includes access to research facilities, assistance with obtaining permissions, passes to state museums and monuments, letters of introduction, invitations to various scholarly and other events, and access to other activities offered by the host institution. The award will consist of a grant of the amount as detailed in the successful applicant's approved budget. Applicants are urged to explore supplementary sources of support. A final report is due at the end of the award period, and the AAR and ASCSA expect that copies of all publications that result from research conducted as a Fellow of the AAR and ASCSA be contributed to the libraries of the research centers.

Application: The application will consist of the candidate's c.v., a detailed research proposal, a plan for travel connected with the project, a budget for all expenses including travel, housing, food, fees, and other living expenses, and proposed dates. Applicants will need to consult with the host institution for costs associated with housing, food, and fees. The selection committee, in evaluating the candidate's proposal, will determine how reasonable and relevant the travel plan and budget appear in relation to the proposed research and the period of time requested for the Fellowship. Two letters of support are to be transmitted online to the Director of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens.

Submit application and application materials online on the ASCSA web site at: www.ascsa.edu.gr.

POSTMARK DEADLINE: JANUARY 31, 2009.

The award will be announced by March 2009.
