

Water and Culture: A View from Rome
17-18 April, 2019

in collaboration with the Enel Foundation

17 April 2019

Villa Aurelia – Porta di Largo San Pancrazio, 1

18:30 Lecture

Marion Weiss and Michael Manfredi: Water, Landscape, and Architecture

19:45 Reception

18 April 2019

American Academy in Rome – Via Angelo Masina, 5

10:30 Coffee

Introduction

11:00 John Ochsendorf (American Academy in Rome)

11:05 Carlo Papa (Enel Foundation)

Session I

11:15 Lynne Lancaster (American Academy in Rome), Introduction

11:20 Cynthia Bannon (Indiana University), Roman Water Law: Aims and Assessments

11:45 Kathy Gleason (Cornell University), Opulent Waters: Landscape Architectural Displays of Water Wealth in Ancient Rome

12:10 Paolo Squatriti (University of Michigan), Water Management in Medieval Italy

13:00 - 14:30 Break

Session II

14:30 Katherine Rinne (California College of the Arts), Trickle Down Theory in Late-Renaissance and Baroque Rome

14:55 Greg Aldrete (University of Wisconsin, Green Bay), Floods in Ancient Rome: The Eternal City Goes Under

15:20 Frank Snowden (Yale University), Fascism and the Pontine Marshes

16:00 - 16:30 Coffee

Session III

16:30 - 17:30 Panel: Water Management, Climate Change, and Landscape Design

Julia Czerniak (Syracuse University)

Annalisa Metta (Università Roma Tre)

Edoardo Croci (Università Bocconi, Milano)

Carlo Pignoloni (Enel Green Power SpA)

Moderator: John Ochsendorf

17:30 - 18:30 Discussion

18:30 Reception